Consultation: Environmental plantings pilot

Overview

The Clean Energy Regulator (the agency) is designing a pilot to encourage the uptake of Emissions Reduction Fund \(ERF\) projects by farmers and landholders using the environmental plantings method.

The proposed environmental plantings pilot has three components: streamlined registration and crediting, access to a fixed price Australian Government purchasing desk outside of ERF auctions and reduced auditing requirements.

The agency is seeking feedback on the consultation paper, which provides more information about the pilot including reducing possible barriers to uptake and proposed solutions, before finalising the design and implementing the pilot.
