Your submission

Submissions will be treated as public documents unless otherwise indicated.

Personal information will be treated in accordance with the Privacy Act and not disclosed.

If you wish to submit confidential information you should clearly identify the information that is the subject of the confidentiality claim and provide a non-confidential version of your submission in a form suitable for publication.

Will my submission be published on the CER website?

Yes, all submissions will be available on our Consultation Hub webpage at www.cleanenergyregulator.gov.au

An exception to this is any clearly indicated confidential submissions.

How do I participate?

1

Visit our Consultation Hub at www.cleanenergyregulator.gov.au

(See: Small-scale Renewable Energy Scheme (SRES) product listing consultation)

2

Download the consultation form and read our guidance information

3

Consider making your submission as an individual, on behalf of a business or organisation and if it is non-confidential or confidential

4

Email your completed form by 6 Dec to cer-sresreforms@cer.gov.au

What happens next?

Following consultation, the CER will review submissions received.

This process could lead us to using our power to nominate an organisation to publish approved solar panel and inverter product lists under the SRES.

If we do not make a nomination, the Clean Energy Council will continue to publish approved product lists.

Thank you
