The image features a light gray silhouette of Australia. Overlaid on this map are several dark blue circular callouts, each containing the name of a state or territory and the number of projects under contract. The largest callout is in the center, displaying the total number of projects. Other callouts are positioned around the map to represent different regions: NT (North Territory) at the top, QLD (Queensland) on the right, WA (Western Australia) on the left, SA (South Australia) in the center, NSW (New South Wales) on the right, ACT (Australian Capital Territory) on the right, VIC (Victoria) on the right, and TAS (Tasmania) at the bottom. A large callout at the bottom left provides a breakdown of the total projects into multi-state and national projects.
